ANOTHER NEW CHURCH.

The Southern Methodists to Re-build.
 A Handsome Edifice to Take the Place of the Old Structure.

Maysville is to have another handsome church, of modern design.

The Southern Methodists have decided to re-build, and before another spring rolls around an elegant structure will mark the site of the present old building in which the congregation has worshiped for many years—on the south side of Second street, just west of Grave alley.

A year or so ago there was talk of re-building, but the matter was dropped and allowed to rest until a few months since, when the question was quietly revived, with the result as now announced.
 The decision to re-build was made at a meeting of the officers of the church Monday night, and the work will be commenced as soon as all the arrangements, as to plans, specifications and contracts, are completed.

The cost of the new church will be in the neighborhood of $15,000, and when it is completed the congregation will have one of the handsomest houses of worship in Maysville.

The present building was erected in 1852.

N. J. Power & Co.'s Combination Sale.

N. J. Power & Co.'s combination sale of saddle and harness horses yesterday attracted a big crowd of stock-men and farmers from the surrounding country.
 At noon some of the hotels were not able to accommodate all their guests, and business all 'round was livened up considerably.

The sales took place at the firm's stables on East Fourth street. Bidding was quite spirited, and good animals brought good prices. During the day twenty-five head were sold for $4,363, an average of about $175. Messrs. Carr & Tolle's fine stallion, Lone Star, brought $800, Mr. N. J. Power being the purchaser. Lone Star will make the season of 1890 at Power & Co.'s stables on East Fourth street. A colt eleven months old by this stallion was sold for Mr. Tolle for $146, Mr. E. P. Berry, of Mayslick, being the purchaser.

The brown road mare Maud Landers was knocked off to Mr. Thomas Tyler for $300.

The sales were continued and to-day about thirty head will be offered.

A Lively Chase.

Deputy Sheriff Jefferson had a lively chase yesterday afternoon after a colored fugitive from justice.

On Christmas night, 1888, Mason Jones, colored, shot another negro named John Clark at Mayslick, inflicting a dangerous but not fatal wound. Jones escaped and succeeded in eluding the officers until yesterday, when he was pointed out to Mr. Jefferson at the horse sales on East Fourth street.

Mr. Jefferson placed Jones under arrest, and started to jail with him. The prisoner was a little in advance and at the first alley he made a daring break for liberty. Down the alley to Second, thence to the Fifth ward he went. He was fleet of foot, and gave the officer a lively chase.
 Deputy Marshal Mangan and Mr. John T. Parker joined in the race, and Jones was finally captured near Mr. W. W.
 Lynch's residence.

Mr. Jefferson fired several shots at the fleeing prisoner, but the leaden missiles only served to make him duck his head and increase his speed. He is considered a dangerous character, and will likely get a sentence of several years in the "pen" at the next term of the Circuit Court.

Deserved a Larger Audience.

The McLean-Prescott company deserved a larger audience than that which greeted them at the opera house last night. Those who were there were well entertained by Mr. McLean's splendid rendition of "Spartacus, the Gladiator." This was manifest from the frequent and hearty applause the tragedian's acting elicited from the crowd. The support was good, and the audience came away well pleased. The play did not afford Miss Prescott much opportunity, but she availed herself of these opportunities, and as "Julia," the lovely niece of the cruel-hearted Roman Praetor, she displayed those rare talents that have placed her among the stars of the day. She will appear to-night as "Rosalind" in "As You Like It." The New Orleans Time-Democrat says:

"Miss Prescott is a reader of rare acquirements. She handles her voice with skill, possesses a mastery over its inflections, and enunciates with a distinctness that is almost faultless. She has a graceful carriage, a supple figure and an attractive face. She comes equipped with all that is necessary to make the 'artiste,' and receives the heartiest applause for her efforts. Her Rosalind is most enjoyable."

Don't miss seeing her to-night. Reserved seat tickets at Taylor's.

FOR SALE—Frame cottage in Fifth ward.
 Four rooms and porch. Premises in good repair. L. W. GALBRAITH, agent.

RAILWAY CONSOLIDATION.

The Kentucky Central and the Newport News and Mississippi Valley—C. & C. Earnings.

"The Kentucky Central has secured the Newport News and Mississippi Valley, or perhaps, more properly speaking, there is to be a consolidation of the two properties, both of which are controlled by C. P. Huntington," says the Enquirer.
 "The Kentucky Central people are on top in the shuffle, and H. E. Huntington, at present Vice-President and General Manager of the K. C., is to be General Manager of the consolidated lines."

"As announced J. D. Yarrington, Vice-President of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley, whose headquarters are at Lexington, has tendered his resignation, and it is very likely that H.
 E. Huntington will be elected to succeed him."

"Whether this deal contemplates the taking-in of only the Eastern division othe N. N. and M. V. Company, known as the Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy, reaching from Huntington, W. Va., to Lexington, Ky., 139 miles, with a trackage arrangement with the Louisville and Nashville for an entrance to Louisville from Lexington, or is also to include the Chesapeake and Ohio South-western, known as the Western division of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley Company, with a mileage of 413 miles, and reaching from Louisville to Memphis, is not definitely known.
 That the deal covers the Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy is, however, a certainty. The consolidation takes place on May 1.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio Road for the third week of March show an increase of $30,386.39 over those for the corresponding week of last year.
 The figures are:

1890.....	$131,387.77
1889.....	101,001.38
Increase.....	$30,386.39

The Steamer M. P. Wells Not Sold

It turns out that there is no truth whatever in the statement copied from the Augusta Chronicle that the steamer M.
 P. Wells now belongs to the White Collar Line. Captain Edgington hasn't sold the Wells and has no intention of selling her. He chartered her for a week during the high water to the Dayton Transfer Company, but the charter expired last evening. She resumed her trips between Augusta and Maysville this morning, and is in the trade to stay.

Maysville Fair and Races.

The Maysville Fair Company, through Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, its enterprising and efficient Secretary, announces the counties, entries to close April 19:

 1887), $50 added.
